Special Attractions on the 6th --- Labor Day

HAVE A GOOD TIME FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, REST SUNDAY, THEN FINISH UP MONDAY IN A BLAZE OF GLORY. O-KEE! O-KEE! O-KEE!

It is quite evident that Scoop's columns are being carefully perused, as Joe Marlow has been on the prod because he claims that Harry Dowson and Freddy Perkins have stolen all his white mice and that he is worrying at not having time to train another bunch for the ladies, but he says "He'll manage to pull the beggar hup some'ow" for the Carnival.

Percy Longley is getting quite thin over his show for the Carnival; he says he can't get Billy to go into training for their celebrated Punch and Judy show, but Percy will be there, as he so aptly remarks, "Hi wouldn't miss that show for an awful of oranges." Order please Bill.

Sh! Sh! Sh! Here's another mystery that has leaked out by the conversation of some of the ladies, wives and sweethearts of Elks, Leo Noel and Harry Winchcombe offers to give a full tonorial treatment to the winner of the Essex Coach; Harry says he'll give two if it's a lady who wins it; Leo would like to say so but he's married.

What do you think of this—Pat Graham and Mac Mackenzie have rigged up a steering wheel in their bank offices learning how to drive an Essex, at least that's what they say they are doing. We believe they've some deep laid scheme to surprise the innocents next week. Don't let this go any further, but Pat is paying two bits for all the snakes that are brought in, you know he is quite a nice little charmer, at least the girls think so, don't you girls? Here's a humdinger—The three Griers, Ashley, Norman and Joe have arranged for some special game during the show. Ashley says it's a rabbit game he's picked up in Australia; if it's any rabbit game there's sure to be fur flying, so look out.

Frank Walshe, the genial manager of the carnival, had to buy the ice cream alright for the Juniors last week, but he says the Lord help the public during the carnival as he had to cough up 45 cents for nine cones, then Bill Long rang in with a banana split, so he's going to make Bill do all the conning next Friday, Saturday and Monday.

Ray Baker has jumped off to Vancouver—Ray says he's gone on a vacation, don't believe him for a minute, he's really gone to find some fresh lobsters to bring back to the carnival as he and Jack Swinerton don't believe there'll be enough suckers in Macleod to play their games.

Here's another good one: Lawrence Dixon has quit the dancing aggregation and is going to open a Chip Potato stand in company with Charlie's 'ot dog and 'amburger stall. "You know Muvver, let's go darn to the hexhibition and get a 'aporth of chips and one of Charlie's 'amburgers, it will take us back to the hold 'nmpstead shindys."

The two McLean's you know Shanks and Bo, have everything fixed up for their special number—they've been taking liquid clarifier for the voice during the past week so their vocal organs will stand up under the strain of three days hollering.

DEATH-DEFYING LEAP TAKEN BY ACROBATS IN "VARIETY"—EMIL JANNINGS FEATURED IN UNUSUAL DRAMA OF SHOW WORLD

Partners. Boss and Artinelli. World's greatest acrobatic duo. Partners—yet deadly enemies. For slim Artinelli has enticed the soft, dark-eyed dancing girl away from giant Boss who is infatuated with her.

Boss and Artinelli. Whirling through their famous trapeze act at the mammoth Winter Garden, one hundred feet above the audience. Suddenly a hush falls on the thousand's below. The climax of the death-defying performance—the leap has come!

Boss glances down for an instant at the sea of fascinated eyes, for below, through his jealousy-maddened brain a thought flashes. If Artinelli should fall—if he, (Boss), should miss by a fraction of an inch his partner's wrists as they come flying toward him!—the girl!

There, in a few words, you have one of the big "punch" scenes, which take place in Paramount's latest production, "Variety," which will be at the Empress Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday next week.

The film was made in Germany by the Ufa Company. Emil Jannings and Lya de Putti are the featured players.

THE "MERRY WIDOW" AT THE EMPRESS—3 DAYS — MON.-TUES.-WED.

The Story:—Against a background of Viennese life, such as only Von Stroheim can portray, is told this immortal love story of Prince Danilo and the beautiful, madcap girl they called The Merry Widow. In the gay, colorful capital of Montebelone, Danilo and his brother the Crown Prince meet Sally O'Hara, a beautiful dancer, and she and Danilo fall in love at first sight. He takes her out after the theatre, and when they are discovered together, to save compromising her, he announces that she has consented to marry him. But Danilo's parents force him to break off the match, and broken-hearted, but never married an old rule, the wealthiest man in the principality, to spite them. Their life together is brief and dramatic, for the husband dies on his wedding night, and the little dancer is transformed on the instant into the Merry Widow, the most powerful figure in the land.

Off to Paris she goes, where she scatters her millions with a reckless hand. Danilo's parents send him after her, eager to have their son marry her now, but he refuses—he will think him a fortune-hunter. But his brother the Crown Prince goes, and the Merry Widow accepts him, believing that Danilo no longer loves her. The brothers quarrel fiercely, and a challenge to a duel is passed. The Merry Widow tries frantically to stop the combat, but never marries an old rule, the wealthiest man in the principality, to spite them. Their life together is brief and dramatic, for the husband dies on his wedding night, and the little dancer is transformed on the instant into the Merry Widow, the most powerful figure in the land.

the duel in carousing and mad revels, in a glittering scene of beautiful women, adventures and soldiers who crowd the capital. In the cold gray of dawn, the brothers face each other, but Danilo who does not even shoot at his brother, is himself dangerously wounded. Then comes a stirring and surprising climax to this glamorous tale, for the Crown Prince is killed on his way home, Danilo becomes the heir to the throne, and, nursing him back to health, The Merry Widow asks, "When are you going to ask me to marry you, Danilo?"

RICHARD TALMADGE AT THE EMPRESS FRIDAY ONLY

It is difficult to meet people socially in a butler's garb; particularly when you have met them before in your own expensive tailored clothes, and when you don't want them to know you! This the irrepressible Dick Talmadge discovers in his latest picture, an amusing comedy-melodrama with plenty of fights, oodles of action and an infinite amount of real humor, entitled "The Wall Street Whiz." It will be shown on Friday only at the Empress Theatre. A perfect supporting cast which includes among others Marceline Day, Lillian Lundgren, Belle Bennett, Carl Miller and Dan Mason gives a brilliant interpretation to the fast and funny story conceived by James Bell Smith and directed by Jack Nelson. The star himself is proving in each successive picture that he has a real gift for comedy and farce, and this fact, combined with his daring exploits and his ability at high and lofty tumbling "without the aid of a net" makes him one of the most unusual box-office attractions on the screen today.

"VARIETY" A GREAT FILM

By Jesse L. Lasky

(Editor's Note: Jesse L. Lasky, as first vice-president in charge of Paramount production, needs no introduction to local movie-goers. Paramount is sponsoring the presentation of "Variety," which comes to the Empress Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday next week—Emil Jannings and Lya de Putti are the featured players.)

I'm GLAD Paramount is releasing "Variety."

Why? Because I honestly believe it to be one of the finest pictures I have ever seen. Certainly, it is by far the best film which has yet come from Europe's studios.

The work of the two featured players, Emil Jannings and Lya de Putti, held me as though in a vice—unable to move. Mr. E. A. Dupont's direction I believe to be nothing short of marvelous, while the photography is as good as America's best.

When you see "Variety," you will concur with me in thinking the story to be jammed with intense drama, fine handling of moods, and startling thrills. Never has there been a scene to compare with the one which takes place when Jannings, Miss de Putti and Warwick Ward are shown on the trapeze, hundreds of feet above the heads of an immense audience. Looking down, the camera has transferred to the screen an impression that a thousand eyes are looking right into the lens. Here is one scene in a million!

And then the views of the country carnival are great. Jannings' characterization of the acrobat is quite the best thing he has ever done. Mere words can't describe Miss de Putti's portrayal.

I could continue indefinitely. Just see the picture. I am sure you'll share my enthusiasm.

Dick Talmadge, agile young star of the movies, began his career in a circus as an acrobat. He is now beauty show or "The Great Arabian Dancers" has been kind of knocked on the head; you see Al is married now and naturally Mrs. M. is not going to stand for that kind of thing, but we understand a truce has been arrived at and Mel Dean has taken over the management of the business—of course Al is still in the company.

We can't delve into Frey's and Linnings' show, you know handling so much ice cream Frey is naturally a cold blooded son of a gun, and Bill is like the proverbial Equimaux hammer, but it may be a big soft drink counter where the thirsty souls can get refreshed from the burning torments of 'ot dogs, 'amburgers and chip potatoes.

Wes. Shields, like the noted Spinks, won't let out a peep—but here's the joke—he's going to hold all the money, we don't know who's going to hold him, but either Meighan or King have promised to send a special detachment of Mounties down to safe guard his getting away. Its no good tuning the old Lizzie up Wes.

Boss Joe Marks asked Scoop as a special favor not to mention that his hair is turning gray with worry over the number of ladies coming into his store for tickets for the Carnival, and every lady wanted number "13." You know, Mr. Marks it's my lucky number, I was playing what the other night and would you believe it I had 13 cards in my hand." Never mind Joe, we want say a word about it.

Diaperd was ruminating the other day and composed the following little parody:

"Mary had a little lamb, who wore a collar and tie.

Everything that Mary wanted the Lamb was sure to buy, When he took her to the Carnival, she said what a lamb you are, But when Tommy won the Essex, she said Baa, Baa, Baa. Is't that like girls all over?"

Don't overlook Jack Paulson's and Finn Donahue's wonderful trained chicken show—no Joe, we mean fowl, feathered birds. They're real nifty, Jack has even taught one to play to the banjo and cluck "Old Black Joe."

Here's another we just received over the radio: Harry Gilroy has been practising in Calgary on the quiet for a big ventriloquist performance to be given at the Elks carnival in Macleod. Thanks Harry.

Well boys and girls, you will see in the advertisement about catching of the elusive Elk, trained by the noted animal trainer El Walker and changed by the mysticism of the famous Percy Coburn into a human being for the three days of the carnival. The first boy and the first girl who walk up to this "Elk" during the Carnival and say "You are the elusive Elk of the Carnival" will receive a dandy prize.

That's enough for this time folks. Just another reminder to get your ticket on the Essex coach, they're going day by day "in every way" faster and faster. Macleod Elks three big Days, Friday, Saturday and Monday, September 3, 4 and 6, with special attractions for Labor Day (Monday the 6th).

MACLEOD WINS FIRST GAME OF JUNIOR PLAY-OFF

The first game of the semi-finals for the junior baseball championship of Alberta was played at Macleod Friday of last week between Macleod Champions and the Blairmore Juniors. There was a strong cold wind blowing which rather interfered with the game, yet, notwithstanding the wind, the game was a good exhibition of baseball, some clever play being done by several of the boys, which would have been a credit to a senior team. The crowd which was present was fully repaid for their endurance of the cold by the class of ball played. Macleod won 11-3.

Goose, the first pitcher for Blairmore, had two strike-outs to his credit, but was hit freely, with the result of 11 runs for Macleod in the first four innings. Honequist was then put on the mound in the fifth inning, allowing a few hits, with two strike-outs, but no runs. Goose's support by his team was not of the best. Burrows took the mound for Macleod for the first six innings, allowing a few scattered hits, but with the excellent support of his team-mates, no runs were made by Blairmore. Ringland relieved him in the seventh and in this inning Blairmore made their first run by an error. In the ninth Blairmore made two more runs, also by errors. Burrows struck out two men, and Ringland three. Macleod had eight men left on bases, and Blairmore four.

Score by innings:
Blairmore 000 000 102-3
Macleod 420 500 00x-11

The lineup:
Blairmore—Gusty, s.s.; Houbreg, 3b; Kemp, 2b; Evans, c.f.; Pinkie, 1b; Goose, p; Honequist, c. p.; Martine, l.f.; Vandemer, r.f.; c.; Thompson, r.f.

Macleod—Dean, 2b; Long, c.; McDonald, 3b; Kirk, s.s.; Burrows, 1b; Hamilton, c.f.; Gardiner, r.f.
Umpires—Meyers, Frey and Coburn.

Macleod goes to Blairmore on Tuesday to finish the semi-final series.

MACLEOD JUNIORS ON WAY TO TITLE

Macleod juniors continued their successful march to another provincial baseball championship when they easily defeated the Blairmore juniors in a double-header Tuesday on the Blairmore diamond. Macleod will now meet Calgary in a series for the finals. In the first game Blairmore was shut out, four to nil. While both teams managed to get credit for four hits, the visitors made better use of their hits than the locals. McDonald, for Macleod, poked out a three-bagger, while Kirk and Macleod each got a single. Kerup, Pinkie, Vandusen and Thompson each got a hit off Burrows but were left on the sacks. The champions have a snappy infield and the outfielders backed up the inside boys on every play.

The team as a whole showed the coaching of Spud Murphy, who has drilled them into a real machine. Hornquist for Blairmore, struck out five men, and Burrows, for Macleod, fanned three. Batteries: Macleod—Burrows and Long; Blairmore—Hornquist and Vandusen. Umpires: Lance Morgan at the plate and Danny Lewis at the bases.

Second Game Walkover

The second game was a walkover for Macleod with a score of 17 to 3. Macleod knocked three pitchers out of the box, and hit all the Blairmore offerings. Dickens was wild and walked several; Evans lasted one inning, and Gosse was batted freely. Although Macleod was batted freely, he received air-tight support. The box score shows 11 hits and 2 errors for Macleod, 10 hits and 11 errors for Blairmore. Clifford Dean roared a home run and Jack Oaker pulled a real big-league catch for the entertainment of the spectators. Batteries: Macleod—Burrows and Long; Blairmore—Dickens, Evans, Gosse, Hornquist and Vandusen. Umpires: Morgan at the plate and Hilling on bases. Attendance was 400.

RUDOLPH VALENTINO, SHEIK OF THE MOVIE WORLD, IS DEAD—ONE OF THE BEST KNOWN FIGURES ON SILVER SCREEN PASSES, FOLLOWING OPERATION IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Rudolph Valentino, famed "sheik" of the movies, died in hospital here today, suffering a relapse Saturday after satisfactory progress toward recovery, following a double operation here last week.

Peritonitis set in following the operation.

Death occurred at 12:10 o'clock eastern daylight time at the Polyclinic Hospital.

QUEBEC SENATOR DIES ON TUESDAY

MONTREAL, Aug. 24.—Senator L. O. David died here today. He was 86 years of age.

Hon. Laurent Oliver David became one of the most prominent figures in Canada during a full and varied life as a lawyer, journalist, author, government and civic official, member of the Quebec legislature and senator of the Dominion of Canada.

Born at Sault Au Recollet, March 24, 1840, the son of Major Stanislaus and Elizabeth Tremblay David, Senator David was educated at the College of St. Theres and was called to the bar in 1864.

Journalism occupied the attention of Mr. David when he assisted to establish and became chief editor of the Illustrated Weekly L'Opinion Publique in 1870. In 1874 he helped found Le Bien Public.

Parliamentary Career

The future senator's first connection with parliament was as a translator and assistant clerk of the votes of the house of commons during the Mackenzie Liberal regime. His first efforts for public office were unsuccessful and he was defeated in Hochelaga as a Liberal candidate for the local legislature in 1867 and 1875 and for the house of commons in 1878. In 1886, however, he defeated Attorney-General Taiton in Montreal East in the provincial elections. He was unsuccessful in the same seat for federal honors in 1891. The next year he became city clerk of Montreal and held this position until his retirement in 1919. He was summoned to the senate in 1920.

As a member of the Quebec legislature, Hon. Mr. David was instrumental in having laws passed exempting from seizure all the necessary household furniture and three-quarters of working man's wages, gaining the title of "Father of industrial protection."

Senator David was twice married; in 1868 to Miss Albina Chenet (died July 1887), and in 1892 to Miss Ludvine Garsneau (died 1915).

WOMEN LEARNING TO INVEST

How modern women have marched down to Wall Street and learned how to successfully battle with investments in stock and bonds is the interesting story told by one of the largest brokers in New York.

School teachers, stenographers, office girls, housewives, all are learning the business of profitable investment.

According to this specialist, women now have no fear of investing hundreds of thousands, although they formerly feared to handle a one hundred dollar checking account.

Several stenographers, drawing moderate salaries, bring $50 each week to a certain stock specialist. The sums deposited are small. But they have sure indications of an income in a few years that will enable them to retire from business. Aside from the fact of creating a double income for themselves, the working women are acquiring a liberal education. Dabbling in foreign markets, they are forced to learn something about the countries in which they have placed their money.

The entrance of women into the financial field is one of the most significant signs of the new age.

GOVERNMENT BY FAMILIES

During and after the Great War Europe rid itself of a majority of its royal stock. But what the principle of family government has lost in Europe, it has seemingly gained in democratic United States.

The inheritance of public office is coming to be a recognized procedure in a country that fought in 1776 to eliminate that very thing.

In Kentucky, Mrs. J. W. Langley has just been nominated to succeed

Best of all Fly Killers—10 and 25c per packet at all Druggists, Grocers and General Stores.

her late husband in congress. The senatorial mantle of power worn by the late Senator Robert M. La Follette has fallen upon the shoulders of his son, Theodore Roosevelt, junior, in endeavoring to climb the path beaten by his father. Nellie Ross succeeded her husband as governor of Wyoming. "Ma" Ferguson succeeded her husband as governor of Texas. Mrs. Edith Rogers in Massachusetts, Mrs. Florence Kahn in California have succeeded their respective husbands in Washington. The inheritance of political power seems to be a principle that can not be eliminated even by revolution.

BELGIUM NEVER CRIED

Belgium was the war's doormat. We heard of atrocities there in unnumbered, but no whimper. The war is over now, and the powers of Europe have arisen one by one to wait over the fiddler's fees. We have not yet heard one chirp from "the bravest of these, the Belgae."

Belgium owes United States $17,780,000, and that is no small amount for a country of that size to be paying. In 62 years, with the interest and all, Belgium will have paid $27,830,000 for the honor of having the enemy tear up her cathedrals, wreck her homes and demolish her business sections.

But King Albert has found a way. The state-owned railroad system has been turned over to private capital. The company has agreed to exchange stock in the roads for short-term government obligations.

Interest on the railroad securities, that is dividends, still is guaranteed by the government, giving investors confidence. In this way Albert calculates to return to the gold standard not later than January 1.

Belgium and Britain are trying to fight, not cry, their way out of it.

a foolish, young boy, aged fifteen years, who, lured by the glamour of the Western picture, left home on June 26 without letting her know where or how he was going.

Richard Mayfield, when last seen, purchased a ticket at the ticket office of the Duluth Winnipeg & Pacific, for Winnipeg, Canada. He told that he intended to attend the "Stampede" at Winnipeg and was going to relatives in the harvest fields of western Canada. Nothing has been heard from him since that date and an anxious mother will appreciate information which will locate him. Richard is fifteen years old, five feet eight inches in height and weighs 135 pounds, light complexioned and generally wears his hair long and combed straight back, has blue eyes, wore a dark grey suit and light cap.

MORE ABOUT CUT PRICES

Henry Longfellow could take a sheet of paper worth one-tenth of a cent, write a poem on it and make it worth $5,000. THAT'S GENIUS.

Henry Ford can take a similar sheet of paper, write a few words on it and make it worth $10,000,000. THAT'S CAPITAL.

A workman can take 3 cents' worth of steel, make it into watch springs and collect hundreds of dollars. THAT'S SKILL.

A merchant can take an article worth 50 cents, advertise it and sell it for $1.00. THAT'S BUSINESS.

Almost anyone can take on order at a cut price without profit. THAT'S TOUGH.

Man is not as resourceful as woman. If it's a rotten movie, he can't enjoy it because the hero wears nice clothes.

What the party seems to need is a political machine that will go nicely on dry land and not skid on the wet spots.

And yet these kids, when they have kids of their own, may long for the staid, old-fashioned customs of 1926.

HEAVY SURF
Written for The Christian Science Monitor
I roar and I roar
As sea-gulls soar
With my spray-bubbles tossed to the air;
My ways are deep but my waters keep Small sea-shells perfect and rare.

Above and below
My song full and low
You may hear if you listen with care
A lullaby, lullaby, born of a cloudy sky
Thrilling the tumult there.

My waters leave
As giants breathe
Great rolls and ridges of height.
But my wave soon breaks, and the fringe that it shakes
Is fine and soft and white.

So though I may roar
And lift and lower,
And pound with a mighty power,
My heart sings on as lovely a song
As ere came from the heart of a flower
—Flora Lawrence Myers.

Times change. Once man used clubs on his wife; now he sneaks out with his clubs and uses them to swat a little ball.

Since the war people no longer use substitutes for food except at afternoon teas.

It isn't probable that sex magazines make minds nasty. They just fit that kind.

There isn't much fun in a ball game unless you are prejudiced enough to think most of the decisions on one side rotten.

There is princely luxury and refinement apparent in every detail of the 1927 McLaughlin-Buick. New Coronation Colors in Duo, the year's latest custom shades for exterior finishes; new and exclusive upholsterings and interiorware in the beautiful, new, closed bodies by Fisher; recessed windows with two-tone custom effects; jet black tires and jet black rims—
These are but a few of many smart features which distinguish these remarkable new motor cars. And McLaughlin-Buick luxury costs much less than you must pay elsewhere for similar value. That is an advantage of enormous volume. Come in today and see the Greatest McLaughlin-Buick Ever Built. MF-316

Ford One Ton Truck equipped with grain body and all steel closed cab.

Does Six Weeks' Work
In One

Joseph Girodat hauls his grain seven miles north into Gull Lake, Sask. He used to make three trips a week with his horses as that was all they could stand.

Now with his Ford Truck he easily makes four trips a day and can haul all the grain in one week that used to require six.

"When I think of the many times, returning home, I had to walk seven miles beside my grain wagon to keep from freezing, and compare it with my trips now in a comfortable closed in cab, I would hate very much to ever resort to teams and wagons for hauling grain," says Mr. Girodat.

"I now eat all my meals at home, travel in comfort, and do my hauling for less money than previously. I get about seventeen miles to the gallon."

Ford trucks can be depended upon regardless of cold weather or icy roads. Many farmers have found with Mr. Girodat that "the whole thing sized up is comfort versus misery" in addition to more grain profit.

We will gladly prove to your satisfaction that the use of Ford equipment will save you time and money.

BUY AT HOME SPEND YOUR MONEY IN MACLEOD

Purchases representing thousands of dollars are lost to us, to our trade, to our clerks and employees, to our laborers and artisans, to all the people of Macleod who exist on the products of their work. This money, if spent at home, would help to recreate Macleod financially, give a wider field of activities in business, would be helpful to every resident of this town.

If we purchased regularly from local merchants, this money would circulate in Macleod in a welcome manner. Our merchants merit our patronage; it is to our interest, and the duty of all of us to encourage the local merchant. He is one of us, he lives among us, he has the right to be encouraged by us, he is anxious to have our custom, and to give us satisfaction. We should under all circumstances give him preference, price for price, quality for quality. And nearly always the price that our local merchant asks is, if we compare the quality, just as cheap as that of the outside merchant.

Never purchase merchandise by catalogues from foreign houses before assessing yourself that you cannot procure the same articles, of the same quality (and frequently of better quality) at the same price from your local merchant.

BACK TO MINE MARCH GAINS IMPETUS DAILY

LONDON, Aug. 23.—A. J. Cook's eloquence during the week-end has failed to stem the tide of returning miners, who apparently realize that it is better to work for something than to live on charity.

Despite threats of vengeance made by Cook, the sound of turning wheels of plant machinery and smoke from the stacks has proved an alluring and gladdening sight to the womenfolk, who cheered the men on their way to the pits last night.

Veiled Statement
Meanwhile, there is much speculation regarding Cook's reference to "somebody else" intervening in the dispute, and his further statement "we have got to make a move and that move is now taking place. The negotiations are not yet finished. My officials are meeting on Tuesday and we are not meeting just for nothing. Give us your trust and we will see that the best arrangements are made."

Ship Coal Today
LONDON, Aug. 23.—For the first time in 17 weeks coal is scheduled to be shipped out of the Midlands area today. Some 6,000 men of the 20,000 coal miners in Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire who signed to return to work actually entered the pits today and began producing coal.

The mine owners expressed satisfaction at the situation and at the number of men who returned to work considering the intensive campaign made by the union leaders to prevent a break in the ranks of the strikers. Union pickets, including many women, persuaded hundreds of men who arrived at the pitheads not to go down in the mines.

Strike Powers
LONDON, Aug. 21.—A battle to decide whether the trades union council should be given wider powers in the calling of general strikes or whether the present powers should be seriously curtailed, is the prospect which congress foresees for its annual meeting during the week beginning September 6. The council appears to have side-tracked the discussion on the conduct of the general strike, which it was proposed should be held and which Representative Hartshorne wished to condemn the council for calling the general strike. "Emperor" Cook hoped that the whole discussion would be called, but it seems that the battle cannot be avoided.

Several unions like the laundry workers, the furnishing trades and the engineering groups want to give greater power to the trades union council to wage a general strike "in defense of vital principles." They would even make it possible for the council to give all assistance to local trades councils which, during the recent strike, tried to usurp the powers of local government.

Ballot is Favored
The National Association of Plasterers, Granolithic and Cement Workers want a ballot to be taken and all contracts with employers honored before the declaration of a strike. All moderate leaders favor this resolution.

Should greater powers be given to the Trades Union Council the government would be compelled to tighten up and extend their organization for the maintenance of essential supplies in anticipation of another industrial struggle which would create armed camps in Britain and an armed force permanently in reserve for such a contingency. Labor leaders like Ramsay MacDonald and J. H. Thomas view such an outcome with misgiving, because they think it would prejudice the chances of labor at the next general election.

PEACE DELEGATES TAKE FIRM STAND

BOISY LA RIVIERE, France, Aug. 23.—Although the international democratic congress for peace has emphasized more than ever at this year's sittings that it believes in peace, it has no use for conscientious objectors. This stand was taken at the last meeting of the congress yesterday, when a resolution was adopted that conscientious objectors in countries with compulsory military service be forced to perform work "equally hard and disagreeable" for the same period as those who serve in the army.

The delegates, numbering nearly 5,000, ended the congress in complete unity, despite the fact that they reported 23 nations with different ideals. One point emphasized by the delegates was that poor youths should have the same chance for higher education as the sons of the wealthy classes in countries where, unlike Canada, working one's way through college is unknown. Maimed veterans of the Great War told of their actual experience at the front, and urged the need of international peace at the congress Saturday.

Queer world! Grass posters the farmers and won't grow on lawns. Hair flourishes unwanted on china and leaves pates bare.

MEXICAN SITUATION SHOWS SOME IMPROVEMENT

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 23.—The customs authorities at Tampico are said to have seized more than 60,000 rounds of pistol ammunition, which they allege was smuggled into the country on board the steamer Panuco from New York.

Committee Probe
MEXICO CITY, Aug. 23.—A special committee, headed by Archbishop Mora Del Rio and consisting of ten archbishops and bishops here from various parts of Mexico, is studying carefully the future course of the Roman Catholic episcopate in the present religious controversy with the government.

The committee is centering attention in the developments of the past few days, especially the turn that the situation has taken as a result of the conference on Saturday night between President Calles and Archbishop Leopoldo Ruiz Flores, and Bishop Diaz, of Tabasco.

Pope to Decide
It is understood that the committee has been sending detailed cable communications to the Vatican through Monsignor Caruana, at Havana, the papal legate, who recently was expelled from Mexico. Any action by the episcopate concerning the registration of priests as required by the new religious regulation and resumption of church services is believed to depend on the pope's reply.

Meanwhile, the episcopate plan to seek constitutional amendment of the religious clauses of the constitution, as suggested by President Calles, continues unchanged. A considerable time may pass before congress acts one way or the other upon the matter. Consequently, the public is centering its hopes upon the possibility that the episcopate will resume church services as a result of President Calles' assurances that the registration of priests is only for administrative purposes and that the government does not purpose to interfere with religious dogmas.

Economic Boycott
Although the episcopate will not take any action on the economic boycott which was ordered by the League for the defence of Religious Liberty, some in close touch with the situation think that the league will abandon the boycott whenever the episcopate orders church services to be resumed. In other quarters, however, there is fear that the league may attempt to maintain the boycott until congress amends the constitution, an act which would continue the present business distress for some months and possibly longer.

NO MORE JAPANESE FOR CANADA

TOKIO, Aug. 23.—Henceforth Japan intends to colonize Hokkaido, Formosa, and other possessions, but in future does not intend to immigrate to Canada, Australia, and other countries, realizing that the previous policy caused much trouble and ill-feeling, a foreign office spokesman announced today.

The spokesman declared that Japan had reversed its entire emigration policy, after discovering the futility and folly of previous efforts to send out its excess population to places where it is not wanted. The present policy is to increase trade with other countries, especially those of the South Pacific, with all efforts of manufacturers and industrialists concentrated on lower costs and building up exports, he said. He announced that a South Pacific trade conference would be held at Tokio on December 9.

ROMANIA QUEEN TO VISIT CANADA

PARIS, Aug. 24.—Queen Marie of Roumania, who expects to sail soon on a visit to Canada and the United States has various business matters to conclude before she decides definitely the date of her departure.

Members of the entourage of King Ferdinand, who is celebrating his sixty-second birthday today, say that the queen as yet has accepted no invitations from North America, except that officially accepted by the Roumanian government for her to dedicate a room at the Maryhill museum, Maryhill, Washington. The queen has received many kindly messages from Canada and the United States since it was made known that she had definitely decided on the visit.

FLIES EIGHT MILES HIGH

BUC, Versailles, France, Aug. 24.—M. Callizo is reported to have broken the world's altitude record yesterday, reaching a height of 12,800 metres, approximately eight miles. The record had stood at 12,066 metres, a mark made by the same aviator.

Seek Records

PARIS, Aug. 24.—Three airplanes in search of new world non-stop records took off at the Le Bourget aerodrome today. Two of them got safely away, but the third was forced down shortly after the start. Of the two remaining in the air, that piloted by Pollen and Van Gaudenberg, headed for Bender Abbas, Persia, while that commanded by Lieut. Charles and Captain Wetzler is expected to land near Karachi, India.

GANGSTERS' GUNS BLAZE

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Gangsters' guns blazed again today, killing one and possibly fatally wounding another. Two men walked deliberately up to the automobile of Michael Blandy, 30, restaurant owner, and fired a fusillade that killed him. His wife, in the front seat with him, was unhurt, but Joseph Varontons, 19 in the rear seat, was shot in the left lung. He may die.

The trio had attended a Sicilian celebration, and had just stepped into the automobile when the attack occurred. The gunmen escaped.

Whether a Sicilian feud, the alcohol war, or revenge for other killings, lay behind the shooting, police are unable to determine.

PROPHECY And Its Fulfillment

A Lecture by J.C. Watt, of the International Bible Students Association will be given in the TOWN HALL -- MACLEOD
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1st
AT 8 P.M.

STRANGE and startling have been the events of the past twelve years, causing even the strongest hearts to tremble with fear, looking forward to the possibilities of the future. Almost super-human efforts have been made by well-meaning men to bring to the world again a condition of peace, stability and prosperity, but their labors have been all in vain. Where can we find a solution to present world problems? Where may we turn for comfort and guidance?

To the Christian the Bible is God's Word of Truth. It is a history of the world written in advance. It describes the major events that have already transpired and also speaks of things still to come. In the light of fulfilled prophecy we have a glimpse of the future; we understand the cause of the present world distress and see the remedy at hand.

Macleod public and high school
re-opens after the holidays on Monday, August 30th. It is urged that all pupils be in attendance on that day.

Arthur Young and Jack Alexander motored out to the different lakes in the south country and brought back the news of big flocks of ducks.

J. McFarquhar, who has been the guest of his brother, Geo. McFarqu-har, for the past three months, left for his home in the east today (Thursday).

The silent policeman at the Queen's Hotel corner has been equipped with a red light which should be a helpful adjunct to this mute guardian of traffic regulations.

F. Cutler, of the Empress Theatre, has had workmen on the job of redecorating and painting the interior of the building and the local theatre certainly looks fine now.

The last few days of sunshine have brought out the golfing fans in large numbers. Some good games have been played on the links and Joe Marks was within ten inches of making a hole in one. Hard luck Joe.

J. Hicks was a visitor to Lethbridge on the 23rd inst on legal business. The object of the visit was to oppose a motion to strike out a Statement of Defence in a foreclosure action for a Monarch client.
The motion for an order nisi to vest
the land in the Plaintiff. The application was refused, with costs.

GENERAL MERCHANTS. DRY GOODS, LADIES AND MENS BOOTS AND SHOES.

THE GROCERY DEPARTMENT—Calls your attention to their large and varied stock of fruits and Vegetables, Apples, Pears, Bananas, Grapes, Plums and Peaches, Green Salad Delicacies, Celery, Cukes, Lettuce, Tomatoes, Etc.

DRY GOODS—Wants careful watching not to let old stock accumulate, but have sales and push slow sellers on the Bargain Table. If the public would help the merchant by buying the wonderful bargains he offered you from time to time, it would mean that he could keep on getting fresh stock and keep ahead of the market by buying fresh goods. You all blame the merchant for not being more enterprising. But enterprise Costs Money, and he can't buy new goods with old stock increasing. Keep on looking for Bargains—it may be they will be just as good as the new goods you, make your store keeper buy.—We make a practice of looking at our stock to look over and cull out slow sellers.

We are likely to have opposition in Ladies' Coats and Dresses.
So taking time by the forelock we will clean them out at and below Cost.
